Once again we are celebrating a rich array of open studios, exhibitions and events – thanks to the involvement of the whole community and a dedicated Festival team.

Our artists' studios are open for you to explore – painters, sculptors, textile artists, metal and glass artists, ceramicists and wood workers are all looking forward to welcoming you.

Rollington Barn (near Corfe Castle) hosts our collective Exhibition showcasing a huge range of work from our many PAW artists, new and more established. This is an excellent place to start your visit – here you will find up-to-date information, a large map, and mouth-watering refreshments in the courtyard café. In the popular Pop Up studio various artists will be demonstrating ways of working with different materials, and in the adjacent byre you can enjoy the imaginative work created by young people participating in our Purbeck Young Artists' workshops.

Before you head off on your art trail do pick up a Postcard Competition postcard with the chance of winning some artwork of your choice!

Alongside the visual arts there is an exciting programme of events. This includes the welcome return of Tenebrae, The Gesualdo Six – an award winning vocal ensemble, and a fascinating concert exploring the stories of women in war. A performance of 'Hildegard Transfigured' includes live visuals, text and music, celebrating 12th century composer and visionary Hildegard von Bingen, and, as usual, The Purbeck Poets host their evening of poetry in the Globe Inn.

We also have our new and exciting 'Portraiture Celebration' – a collaborative venture with Mowlem Visual Arts. This series of events includes an exhibition, a competition for young people, a live portrait painting event, and a talk by our PAW President, the distinguished Sculptor Philip Jackson plus a panel discussion. Do come along!

This year we are trying to be more eco-friendly, with sustainably produced paper and biodegradable inks, and a reduction in the amount we get printed. We hope you like our new-look brochure – and that it makes it even easier for you to enjoy all aspects of the PAW Festival!

Charlotte Heath Chair, Purbeck Art Weeks Festival

Foreword

FROM THE FESTIVAL PRESIDENT

I noticed that in my foreword last year I started by saying that we celebrate this year the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. Little did anyone think that a year later we would be celebrating King Charles's Coronation; demonstrating both continuity and change. What a difference a year makes.

The PAW Festival also demonstrates continuity and change. Taking the best and most popular events of previous years and adding exciting new events, the PAW team has again put together a really exciting fortnight of concerts, exhibitions, demonstrations and experiences for everyone to enjoy. This year the Festival also becomes more environmentally friendly; using sustainably produced paper, a different brochure format and in many other small ways.

Last year, visitors let PAW Festival know how much they loved visiting studios and seeing artists demonstrating their skills and talking about the mechanics of their art. So this year, there will be more of these fascinating encounters in studios dotted around the beautiful Purbeck countryside, and in the Pop Up studio at Rollington Barn. The Festival is also very excited to have a new partnership initiative with The Mowlem, celebrating the art of the portrait and involving some distinguished artists, plus a panel discussion, and portrait competition for young people. And, complementing all of this, is a programme of concerts by hugely talented musicians, to contemplate with, and be transported by, in various venues.

My thanks once again to the wonderful, energetic and talented team that has put together this year's events.

It's going to be a great PAW Festival.

Philip Jackson CVO DL MA FRBS

GOING GREEN

All the paper we are using is sustainably sourced and FSC or PEFC approved and we have reduced the amount we print. We are grateful to Blackmore Printers for helping us reduce our impact on the environment.

Our winner for the cover of this year's Brochure is Galiani Glass for their work entitled Mystic Ocean. Congratulations!

ARTISTS' OPEN STUDIOS

Visiting artists' studios is a wonderful way to enjoy the range of art produced across the Isle of Purbeck. We have painters, printmakers, sculptors, metal workers, ceramicists, wood workers, jewellers, textile artists and much more, for you to explore. Our artists are looking forward to welcoming you!

Entry to all studios and exhibitions is free.

Look out for the small yellow and blue PAW direction signs – or have a look at the PAW Map in the middle of your brochure and plan your trail around your tastes, timescale, or transport. There is a good local bus service and the Swanage Railway steam train, and bicycles can be hired at Wareham Station.

You may like to take your credit card with you (or cheque book) just in case temptation strikes. Many Open Studios have card machines, but not all. Or you can secure your latest art related purchase by paying a deposit.

Please respect individual Open Studios' guidance to visitors. And, please remember that all studios and exhibitions are work environments and are likely to have hazards such as uneven surfaces, sharp tools, etc. Visitors must take great care. The trustees cannot accept liability for loss, injury or damage.

ROLLINGTON BARN

Set in rolling fields just over the hill from Corfe Castle, Rollington Barn is the hub for the PAW Festival – showcasing the fantastic range of creative talent in Purbeck. The main barn hosts a collective exhibition representing most of the PAW Festival visual artists; their paintings, prints, ceramics, photography, woodcrafts, greetings cards and much more. Rollington Barn provides a taste of what can be discovered by visiting our Open Studios, many of which provide a unique opportunity to meet PAW artists.

Entry is free and artwork from the main exhibition can be purchased and taken away on the day. We accept cash, cheques and most credit and debit cards, but please note that the café accepts cash only.

Building on the success of last year's Pop Up Studio in the courtyard, PAW artists will be conducting demonstrations, workshops and talks about their work and medium every morning and afternoon. These events are free and are timetabled on page 38–39 of this brochure and our website.

Rollington Barn is also an excellent place to pick up a Festival Brochure, start planning your art trail and deciding which events you wish to go to. By identifying your favourite artists from those exhibiting you can plot your itinerary around the Open Studio trail. There is always a warm welcome at these venues, and many visitors love the opportunity to meet artists in their own space and discover hitherto undiscovered corners of Purbeck. Do pick up a Postcard Competition postcard with the chance of winning £250 of art of your choice!

In the byre, across the courtyard from the main barn, is one of Rollington's highlights, the PYA show; an eclectic display of artistic creativity and imagination by students (our Purbeck Young Artists) from local schools that will provide inspiration to all.

With the collective show in the barn, the Purbeck Young artists' show in the byre, Pop Up Studio events and the ever-popular Love Cake Courtyard café there is plenty to keep visitors entertained at Rollington for hours!

OPEN DAILY
10.00 to 5.00

PAW POP UP STUDIO AT ROLLINGTON BARN

The journey and not just the destination?

Well we've all read those words and they are as true in art as in life. Honestly! The painting of a picture or the carving of a sculpted form – the actual DOING of it is as rewarding as the finished piece. Trust me!

And that's why we have brought back the PAW Pop Up studio at Rollington Barn for another year.

So after your relaxed viewing of the wonderful work from our Purbeck artists in the exhibition, you can emerge into the sunlight, select a chair, a piece of cake and watch a painter transform a blank piece of paper into their vision of Kimmeridge Bay. A sculptor take single pieces of wire and create a kneeling human form. Or a potter start with a lump of mud – for that is what clay is – and on their wheel, shape a bowl perfect for your lunchtime salad.

All so you can share in the journey that will inspire you to start your own.

We look forward to seeing you.

POP UP STUDIO TIMETABLE

WEEK TWO

THE EVENTS

For PAW Festival 2023, we have four main concerts plus a talk, our annual open mic poetry event at the Globe and a coffee concert at Encombe House. The Festival opens with a sequence of vocal consort works performed by the Gesualdo Six. Voice perform Hildegard Transfigured, a show with live visuals, text and music to celebrate 12th century Hildegard von Bingen's work as a composer, visionary and woman. The art of portraiture in public sculpture will be explored in a talk by internationally renowned sculptor, Philip Jackson, followed by a panel discussion on what makes a good portrait. Due to popular demand we have invited Tenebrae back to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the death of the great William Byrd. We also welcome Helen Charlston back to close the Festival with a solo concert with theorbo player, Toby Carr, exploring the stories of women in war.

Other events we hope you'll enjoy include:

- a live portrait painting event on Saturday 10 June at The Mowlem – see pages 48–49 for details of the Portraiture Celebration events.
- see pages 38–39 for pop-up studio sessions and pages 52–53 for other local events taking place during the Festival.
- see page 50 for details on the Purbeck Young Musicians in concert, which is held outside the main Festival due to exams.

BUSHES AND BRIARS THE GESUALDO SIX

From the roots of choral singing to the flowering of a tradition.

The Gesualdo Six come to Purbeck for the first time to present a programme of some of the finest vocal consort works in a varied sequence that is sure to inspire and delight. Beautiful renaissance works by Arcadelt and Tomkins that contain startling harmonic shifts and expressive word painting are performed alongside settings in the madrigal style by Gibbons and Gesualdo. The programme concludes with a series of folk song arrangements from the British Isles.

“Their sound seemed to float in mid-air before reaching the ears of the rapt audience... every line, every gorgeous texture was radiantly clear.” The Times

The Gesualdo Six is an award-winning British vocal ensemble comprising some of the UK's finest consort singers, directed by Owain Park. Praised for their imaginative programming and impeccable blend, the ensemble formed in 2014 for a performance of Gesualdo's Tenebrae Responsories in Cambridge and has gone on to perform across the UK, Europe, North America and Australia.

HILDEGARD TRANSFIGURED: A MEDIEVAL TRANCE FOR THE 21ST CENTURY VOICE

Hildegard Transfigured is a one-hour programme that takes a unique, in-depth exploration into the world of the 12th century nun, Hildegard von Bingen, and how her legacy continues to inspire. This collaborative piece of concert-theatre, presented by female vocal trio Voice, psychedelic visual-artist Innerstrings, and composer Laura Moody, uses live visuals, text and music to celebrate Hildegard's work as a composer, visionary, and woman.

Voice is an exciting female vocal trio. In their fifteen years together, they have built a dedicated fan-base across the world; a rich and varied repertoire of their own arrangements, new commissions and rarely performed Early Music; and they have honed a truly unique sound. They draw on their individual musical interests and experience to create thrilling timbres and a blend that has been described as 'one voice'.

COFFEE CONCERT VIOLIN AND GUITAR

Miranda Fulleylove (violin) and Steve Smith (guitar) perform works by Piazzolla, de Falla and Bartók in the intimate setting of Encombe House. Each piece will be introduced by the artists.

Violinist Miranda Fulleylove is one of the UK's most sought-after and versatile musicians with a repertoire ranging from Baroque to music written the week before she performs it. She performs and tours all over the world as guest concert master and principal player of many of London's orchestras.

Steve Smith's varied musical career as a guitarist has taken him to some of the most prestigious venues in the world, performing with a wide array of artists and musicians. As a composer, he has written for concert hall, stage and TV, working with many renowned musicians and composers.

Festival Friends can enjoy the wonderful gardens both before and after the recital.

We are very grateful to James and Arabella Gaggero for their generous hospitality.

BYRD AT 400 TENEBRAE

William Byrd is perhaps the greatest of English composers, and certainly one of the most important European composers of his time. We are delighted to welcome Tenebrae back to Purbeck for a concert commemorating the 400th anniversary of his death in July 1623 in spectacular fashion, showcasing much of his finest music alongside works by other Renaissance masters and polyphonic pieces of later ages.

“Unaccompanied choral singing comes no better than this: in blend, accuracy, precision, commitment.” The Guardian

Sim Conetty-Clarke

The internationally acclaimed choral group Tenebrae is renowned for its interpretations of choral music ranging from the Renaissance through to contemporary choral masterpieces. The group has appeared at major festivals and venues. Under the direction of Nigel Short, Tenebrae has twice secured the award for Best Choral Performance in the BBC Music Magazine Awards (2012 and 2016).

BATTLE CRY: SHE SPEAKS HELEN CHARLSTON AND TOBY CARR

And so it goes for one who loves too much...

Helen Charlston (mezzo-soprano) and Toby Carr (theorbo) return to Purbeck as soloists to explore what was close to an obsession with female abandonment and lament in 17th century England and Italy. The stories of women such as Dido, Ariadne and Boudicca have been told and re-told throughout history and in opera and song, but this recital challenges the perception of their abandonment.

The programme combines 17th century music by the likes of Monteverdi, Purcell and Strozzi with a recent song-cycle, Battle Cry, by Owain Park, which considers this stance in the 21st century, giving

PORTRAITURE CELEBRATION

We are excited to bring you a celebration of Portraiture as part of this year's PAW Festival in partnership with The Mowlem's new Visual Arts initiative. There are four events around different aspects of the portraiture theme – two exhibitions, a talk, and painting in action. We hope you'll enjoy them!

EVENT VENUE E

EXHIBITIONS DURING THE FESTIVAL

'Family', an exhibition by Suzy Wright, takes place in The Mowlem's visual arts space. Suzy, textile artist and one of the Sky Portrait Artist of the Year finalists, encourages us to look at portraits in a different way! Free.

Shown alongside this is an exhibition of portraits submitted to our Portraiture Competition by young people from schools across Purbeck – of somebody they 'admire'. There could be some surprises here! The winners and prizes will be announced at 4pm on Sat 10th June in The Mowlem's Community Room. Free.

Philip Jackson
CVO DL MA FRB

Internationally renowned sculptor, Philip Jackson, has established a reputation for monumental works of public commemorative art which capture the character and atmosphere of their subjects. These include Gandhi in Parliament Square, the Queen, and most recently, a memorial to our National Emergency Services.

Suzy Wright

Suzy Wright is known for her iconic images of people, insects, fruit, flowers and birds created using free machine embroidery. She has worked with Zandra Rhodes and for Kaffe Fassett. In 2020 she was selected as one of the Sky Portrait Artist of the Year artists.

Jack Dickson

An artist and teacher, Jack Dickson lives and works in Dorset. Having roots in both Zambia and the UK allows him to draw upon a wide range of cultural and aesthetic influences. He is currently focussing on portraiture and will continue to explore this genre.

Tony Kerins

Tony Kerins has illustrated books, provided magazine portraits, devised illustrated maps and designed theatre sets. For Tony drawing underpins everything he does, along with colour, analysis and emotion, and choosing the medium – and of course telling the story.

Sophie Jenkins

Sophie Jenkins lives in Swanage and has been both teaching and painting for over 20 years. Her work includes portraits of people as well as land and seascapes. She is inspired by colour and light and captures this in her work using a variety of media.

COMMUNITY ART

Purbeck Young Artists

At the heart of PAW is passing on a love for art to young people. We work closely with local schools to celebrate and encourage art, and each year we try and involve around 500 Purbeck Young Artists (PYA) in creative activities. Students are encouraged to develop art works on the festival theme, which this year is 'Nature and the Environment'. The workshops have been coordinated by Sophie Jenkins and are delivered by an amazing team of local artists with a wealth of experience of working with young people. This year the range of workshops includes, ceramics, painting banners, sculptures from nature, mosaics and 3D art using recycled materials. You can see the inspiring results in the byre at Rollington Barn.

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to The Friends of the Festival and to all our Sponsors for supporting our work with young people - without them, we would not have so many opportunities to spread the joy of art so widely. We would also like to thank the schools and teachers involved this year for recognising the importance of art and creativity for young peoples' development and helping to produce some awe-inspiring work. The PYA exhibition opening celebration will be on Friday 26 May at 4 pm with workshop awards at 5pm. We hope you will come and join us!

A Visible THREAD exhibition

Fine Foundation Gallery,
Durlston Country Park,
Dorset BH19 2JL
from 16 May until 7 June 2023
open daily from 10:30am–5pm.
Free to attend.

seam collective presents A Visible THREAD; an exhibition which explores the visibility and invisibility of thread.. Through their unique perspectives and a diverse range of textile disciplines, ten seam artists have created new works to stimulate thought, connection and conversation.

The exhibition aims to encourage viewers to rethink their relationship to thread, be aware of its materiality, its sustainability, its possibilities, and limitations. Thread, as cloth, is woven through our lives. It surrounds us like a second skin. Yet, precisely because of these close connections, it becomes almost invisible to us.

Rooted in craft techniques, work made with thread has historically been seen as 'women's work', private, functional, decorative, and safe. Cloth itself is still considered a gendered material and there's a gender divide between 'high' art and feminised craft. Whilst thread was, until recently, barely visible as a medium in contemporary fine art, the current national and international upsurge in major exhibitions shows thread emerging as an exciting and radical medium for expression.

by Nina Gronw-Lewis

Ahead of the curve, seam, a contemporary textile collective, has been provoking critical conversations about thread as a medium in contemporary fine art since their inception, 10 years ago. The artists taking part are: Angie Parker, Helen MacRitchie, Jane Colquhoun, Joy Merron, Linda Row, Lou Baker, Lydia Needle, Nina Gronw-Lewis, Oliver Bliss and Penny Wheeler.

Further dates and venues for this touring exhibition will be released later in 2023.
